THE BISHOP'S REPORT

The Retirement of the Treasurer

The Reverend Claire Burkat, Bishop, Southeastern Pennsylvania Synod, reported that Mr. Richard Reimet would not seek re-election as the synod's Treasurer at the 2011 Synod Assembly. She noted that Mr. Reimet had served five bishops and that "his wealth of knowledge of people and congregations, and his attention to the stewardship of the synod, have been a priceless gift to the Church for over three decades." A dinner celebrating Mr. Reimet's service to the synod has been scheduled for May 15, 2011, at 6:00 p.m.

Bishop Burkat added that she has asked Mr. Reimet to continue his service to the synod as the Director of Property Management, a voluntary and non-stipendiary position. So that he may sign documents on behalf of the synod, she presented the following resolution, which the Synod Council approved:

S. C. 11.03.01 Whereas, in addition to his duties and responsibilities as the Treasurer of the Southeastern Pennsylvania Synod, Mr. Richard Reimet has cared for, maintained, and negotiated the sale of properties owned by this synod;

Whereas Mr. Reimet has served as a steward of these properties with faithfulness, skill, and a deep knowledge of business practice, at the same time being mindful of the greater mission of the church;

RESOLVED THAT the Southeastern Pennsylvania Synod Council appoints Mr. Richard Reimet to serve a three-year term as the Director of Property Management for the Southeastern Pennsylvania Synod, beginning on May 7, 2011, and ending on May 6, 2014. Mr. Reimet may be re-appointed by the Synod Council at the end of the stated term. ### Consultations with Holy Trinity, Abington, and St. James, Philadelphia

Bishop Burkat thanked the Synod Council members who attended the four consultations with the two congregations, Holy Trinity, Abington, and St. James, Philadelphia, which voted to terminate their relationship with the ELCA. “The meetings were difficult for everyone involved,” she noted, “however, your participation and presence demonstrated love for our shared mission and courage in the midst of painful conversations and actions.”

Letter from Bishop Pile

The Reverend Gregory Pile, Bishop, Allegheny Synod, sent a letter to the Synod Council, in which he reported that he made a pastoral visit to the Reverend Luther Gotwald on February 2, 2011, and expressed “grave concerns” about Pastor Gotwald’s “actions and activity in the Southeastern Pennsylvania Synod,” noting “his unfair attacks on Bishop Burkat and his misuse of the office of pastor as he contacted congregations and rostered leaders” in this synod, regarding matters related to Redeemer, Philadelphia (East Falls).

Synod Finances

In response to the Synod Council's desire for the synod to "live with a more realistic and balanced budget appropriate to these economic times," Bishop Burkat reported that two synod staff positions have been eliminated, effective April 1, 2011, and that another position would move from full-time to part-time in August or September of this year. In the interest of privacy, the names of those affected would not be announced publicly or electronically.
