DEATHS OF ROSTERED LEADERS

The Reverend John D. Kinard

Pastor Kinard died September 9, 2014. He was born January 19, 1930.

Pastor Kinard graduated from The Lutheran Theological Seminary at Philadelphia. He began his ministry as assistant pastor at St. John's, Overbrook; served as pastor at All Saint Lutheran Church in Nicetown; Advent Lutheran Church in Richboro; and Hope Lutheran in Philadelphia.

Pastor Kinard was a humanitarian who was dedicated to the success of the Nicetown Club for Boys & Girls as President. He also served on the Board of the Boys & Girls Clubs of Metropolitan Philadelphia. In addition, he was President of the Philadelphia area chapter of the Lafayette Alumni Association and organized the Lafayette Luncheons. John donated blood on a regular basis to the local blood bank. John's passion and statistical knowledge of the Philadelphia Phillies was undeniable. Participation in 20+ Boys and Girls Clubs night at the Phillies of which he was given the honor of throwing out the first pitch were some of the highlights of his life's journey. He was Chairman of the Maroon Club, which is an organization for Lafayette College sports enthusiasts. He avidly followed the Lafayette Leopards for Football and Basketball. Volunteering as a recruiter for Lafayette College Admissions was one of John's hobbies as well. John was also affiliated with the Philadelphia Police Clergy.

A memorial service was held Saturday, September 20, 2014 at Grace Lutheran Church in Wyndmoor, PA.

The Reverend Richard D. Stevens

Pastor Stevens died September 13, 2014. He was born March 1, 1938.

Pastor Stevens served faithfully the ministry and vision of Southeastern Pennsylvania Synod in many ways including his generous financial support and especially through interim ministry.

A memorial service was held September 18, 2014 at Shannondell's Bradford Movie Theatre in Audubon, PA.

The Reverend Richard E. Boye

Pastor Boye died October 25, 2014. He was born September 10, 1928.

Pastor Richard and Mary began active ministry as partners serving in Illinois, Pennsylvania, North Carolina and Minnesota before retiring on October 31, 1993 with forty-one years of active ministry. They moved to Radford in 1998. He published numerous sermons and collections of sermons.

Before retirement in 1993 Pastor Boye served as pastor at Good Shepherd Lutheran (formerly Amity) in Lena, IL; Trinity Lutheran Church in Carthage, IL; Good Shepherd Lutheran Church in Southampton, PA; St. Mark's Lutheran Church in Charlotte, NC and Elim Lutheran Church in Robbinsdale, MN.

A memorial services was held October 29, 2014 at Our Saviour Lutheran Church in Christiansburg.

The Reverend Donald G. Doll

Pastor Doll died January 7, 2015. He was born April 12, 1917.

Pastor Doll graduated from William Penn High School there in 1934, earned his bachelor's degree in philosophy at Gettysburg College in 1939, and graduated from the Lutheran Theological Seminary at Gettysburg in 1942.

Rather than accept a calling from an established parish, "he went into the mission field and took on the assignment of starting" what became St. Matthew Lutheran Church in Springfield, Delaware County. He was ordained in 1943 and served as its pastor until 1950.

He then was pastor of St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church in Ardmore until 1973, when he and his family moved to Ocean City, NJ.

Until he retired in 1981, he was pastor of St. Andrew by the Sea Lutheran Church in Atlantic City, NJ.

He was a former trustee for Lankenau Medical Center and for the Mary J. Drexel Home, now the Hearth at Drexel, a retirement community in Bala Cynwyd.

In 1962, Pastor Doll served as president of the Greater Philadelphia Council of Churches.

"There was an ecumenical movement in Philadelphia in the early '60s led by this council, as they attempted to narrow differences among the various Christian faiths," his son Brian Sr. said.

"They felt like they made significant progress," he said, but "came up with some serious doctrinal differences around Communion."

Pastor Doll was also chairman of the board of Lutheran Deaconesses, "the Lutheran version of nuns," he said.

The board oversaw deaconess houses in Gladwyne and Baltimore, Brian Doll said.

At the Shores at Wesley Manor, the retirement community in Ocean City where he lived most recently, Pastor Doll shared a dinner table with the Rev. Charles Rinck, 89, former pastor at Grace Lutheran Church in Somers Point.

A memorial service was held January 12, 2015 at St. Peter's United Methodist Church in Ocean City, NJ.
