Boundaries 101: How They Keep Your Church Healthy Rev. Dr. Dolores E. Littleton, LMFT Advisor to the Bishop for Fitness for Ministry
LOWER LEVEL	ROOM E103	SESSION 1&amp;3
This workshop will help lay and rostered leaders think about setting clear boundaries that will help make congregational life safe and inviting for all of God's people to do the work of ministry, to take risk, to change and to embrace the task of living the Gospel in their community. Clarity about personal vulnerabilities and understanding expectations between clergy and congregations is often taken for granted and not understood which only creates anxiety in a congregation and keeps the ministry stuck. It is time for our churches to be intentional about understanding and maintaining a healthy congregation.

Kingdom Building: Equipping Leaders to Effectively Partner with God Dr. Katherine L. Bittner, Bittner and Associates, LLC
LOWER LEVEL	ROOM E111	SESSION 1&amp;2
Equipping rostered and lay leaders to listen to God's will and partner with God for Kingdom Building is no easy task. I will present cutting edge leadership research and thinking on the personal attributes and behaviors that motivate church pastors and leaders to participate in Kingdom Building. As we seek to build God's Kingdom in the world, we will discuss the kinds of personality characteristics and leadership behaviors of both rostered and lay leaders that aid in this endeavor. Further, we will focus on lessons learned as well as practical ideas we can implement to advance God's Kingdom inside our churches and outside our four walls.

In this forum participants will learn how they can use the “Five Gifts of Discipleship” as a guide as they strive each day to grow in faith, love and obedience to God’s will. There will also be a presentation on a resource titled, “Story Matters.” This resource encourages individuals and congregations to explore a biblical passage that they feel represents their faith journey at this time. Participants are given an overview of how this resource can be used to develop discipleship and mission strategies in their setting.
