

REGISTER TODAY!

The Southeastern Pennsylvania Synod's Anti-Racism Team announces a new offering of anti-racism education, this time for both lay and rostered participants.

The format consists of:

- One 90-minute Zoom meeting to introduce the curriculum, planned for Monday, November 6, 2023, 7:00 to 8:30 p.m.
- Nine online modules outlining the historical context of the systemic racism embedded in our current institutions. Participants will have at least nine weeks, at their convenience, to complete these modules.
- One in-person day-long session on Saturday, February 3, 2024 (Snow date: February 10), at the Brossman Center, United Lutheran Seminary, 7301 Germantown Avenue, Philadelphia.

This program is free to all participants.

Register today at: antiracism@sepa.org.

Please register by Thursday, November 2, 2023.